5th-6th graders.

Wow! Moses killed a man! What a horrible thing to do! How could God ever love him again or use him? Sometimes we think that what we do wrong is the worst thing that can be done and we think God can not forgive us. Yet, God forgave Moses and used him in a mighty way.

Other times we think that our sins are so little that they do not matter at all. That is not true either. God notices all that we do and say. If we are mean or rude or selfish or tell a lie, He knows it all. He is willing to forgive. We just need to confess it. We need to say, "God I did this bad thing. Will you please forgive me?"

Use this paper to pray a prayer to God asking Him to forgive you of your sins. It is much better to ask specifically for what you did than to just say, "Forgive me."
