5th-6th graders; Read the story and then answer the question.

They grabbed us and dragged us into the middle of town to the leaders and police. They said, "These Christians are upsetting our town, spreading confusion and telling us to do things that just are not right!"

And the crowd rose up against us and tore off our clothes! They ordered that we be beaten. After that, they hit us again and again and again and threw us into prison. The jailer was told to guard us with his own life. He took us into the dungeon and fastened our feet in stocks,

At about midnight, we were praying and singing hymns of praise to God. The other prisoners were listening. I think the jailer was listening too.

What if it had happened to you?

1. Were Paul and Silas treated fairly? _____

2. How do you think their physical bodies were feeling? _____

3. Why would it have been hard to sing?

4. If they had cried and complained instead, how would the story have ended differently?
