2nd-3rd Graders: A Very Bad 18 hours!

Jesus got betrayed with a kiss, arrested and put in chains. Then he started the day with being denied by a best friend. He was tried by 5 different courts... and it was not noon yet! The afternoon of Good Friday would be even worse! Do you ever have a bad day? You tried to help with breakfast but dropped the eggs on the floor. You dropped your soap in the tub and conked your head getting it back. Your pants were too tight and your sock had a hole in it! Write here about a bad morning you had.

Remember that God is always there to help you. He knows what a really bad morning looks like! He knows what it feels like to be teased and picked on! They did it to Him that morning. Have you ever been teased or picked on? Tell about it.

When that happens, be sure you tell an adult. Also tell Jesus and He will help you. When it happened to me, I told my mom. She helped me know what to do! Jesus helped me too!

Express it in words:

Pretend for a few minutes that you are Simon Peter. You used to be a fisherman, a real tough guy until you met Jesus. Then you left everything that was ever important to you to follow the Miracle Man and just watch and listen and learn from Him. You love Jesus more than anyone else, even your wife! Just last night, you said, "Even if everyone else leaves you, Jesus, I'll stick by your like glue! I'll never let them kill You. I will even lay down my life for You." Yet when you tried to fight those soldiers, Jesus had yelled at you for using a sword. And now, you had just done what He said you would. You had three times said, "I don't know Jesus." That stupid rooster. You wish you'd never have heard of roosters! How could you have said it about Jesus the Christ the Son of God?

Now your job is this. Write down the words you think Peter told his wife when he went home and she asked, "Why are you crying?"
